Details are available in the Production Information Sheets and Trading Platform or can be obtained from Customer Services particularly if they have changed since publication of the Production Information Sheets or for one-off Markets.
- 12.4 We may amend the minimum and maximum stake/trade sizes. You should also ensure You know the current minimum and maximum stake/trade sizes but if You are uncertain, please contact Us.
- 12.5 AYONDO MARKETS has the right to waive any of the limits of the minimum and maximum stake/trade sizes.

13 OPENING POSITIONS

- 13.1 You should make sure You understand all of the rules, specifications and these Terms that apply to the relevant Market before you place a Margined Trade. You can obtain these from some or all of the below:
- Product Information Sheets
 - Trading Platform
 - Our Website
 - Customer Services.
- 13.2 Margined Trades can be placed using the Trading Platform or by telephone as follows:
- 13.2.1 By using the Trading Platform: log onto the Trading Platform. If We can quote You Our Price (for the particular Market), it will be displayed on the Trading Platform (see below and also clause 9). You can choose whether you wish to offer to place a Margined Trade at Our Price; You can offer to do this by clicking on the relevant icon. Unless and until We accept Your offer, You will not have placed a Margined Trade.
 - 13.2.2 By Telephone: call the AYONDO MARKETS trading desk and ask for Our Price on the relevant Market. If it is possible (see below and clause 9), We will quote You Our Price and You can choose whether You wish to place a Margined Trade at Our Price. Unless and until We accept Your offer, you will not have placed a Margined Trade.
- 13.3 You should note the following:
- 13.3.1 You may only offer to place a Margined Trade during AYONDO MARKETS trading hours for the relevant Market.

- 13.3.2 Outside our trading hours for a Market, that Market will show as closed on the Trading Platform and You will not be able to place a Margined Trade on that Market. This will be highlighted by the display of a relevant icon/graphic.
- 13.3.3 If You wish to place a Margined Trade by telephone, You must quote your name, Account number and any additional security information that We may request.
- 13.3.4 If You wish to place a Margined Trade through the Trading Platform You will need your Account number and password.
- 13.4 A calculation will be made by Us upon receiving Your offer to place a Margined Trade which will be the available margin prior to the offer of any trade. If the trade offered results in Your required margin exceeding the available margin, We may reject the proposed trade.
- 13.5 Any offer to place a Margined Trade can also be rejected by Us if any of the following applies:
 - 13.5.1 The offered Margined trade would result in any breach of these Terms or Regulations or Law.
 - 13.5.2 You are overdue on any payment due to Us, including Margin.
 - 13.5.3 The Margined Trade You are offering will result in Your Margin Requirement exceeding the limit set by AYONDO MARKETS in accordance with clauses 6.
- 13.6 Any offer to place a Margined Trade is only accepted by Us if:
 - 13.6.1 Over the telephone: the dealer has confirmed to You that it has been accepted;
 - 13.6.2 Through the Trading Platform: You have received a specific confirmation message that the offered trade has been accepted.
- 13.7 You should contact AYONDO MARKETS immediately if You are unsure in any way, as to whether an offer to place a Margined Trade has been accepted.
- 13.8 Unless otherwise agreed, the following applies in relation to Your Margined Trades and Orders:
 - 13.8.1 We will not check or take into account any assumption expressed by You as to the effect of any Margined Trade on Your overall Open Positions with AYONDO MARKETS
 - 13.8.2 A Margined Trade and/or Order will be placed regardless of whether it creates a new Open Position or closes an existing Open Position.
 - 13.8.3 If an Open Position already exists and an opening Margined trade is executed in a product which is fungible to the existing Open Position and in the opposite direction to the existing Open Position, then the act of placing the Margin trade will result in the forced opening of a new position with opposing direction to the position that is already open.
 - 13.8.4 When closing Open positions manually (i.e. not through auto-execution via the ayondo service), it is only possible for positions to be fully closed (not in part) using the specific 'close' function/button as shown within the 'Open Positions and Orders' panel of the Trading Platform. As stated in clause 13.8.3 above, opening a Margined trade in a product which is fungible to the existing Open Position and in the opposite direction to the existing Open Position will result in the forced opening of a new position with opposing direction to the position that is already open.
 - 13.8.5 It is not possible to close an open Margined trade in part. All closing Margin trades must result in full closure of an individual Open Position.
- 13.9 You have no rights or obligations to the Underlying on which Our Prices are based. You are placing Margined Trades and Orders on Our Prices (see clause 9) in relation to our Markets.

14 CLOSING POSITIONS

- 14.1 A Long Position can be closed by selling at Our Bid Price quoted on closing.
- 14.2 A Short Position can be closed by buying at Our Offer Price quoted on closing.
- 14.3 Open Positions can be closed by placing a closing Margined Trade. In addition:
- 14.4 You can usually close Margined Trades at any time during AYONDO MARKETS trading hours for that particular Market. You should refer to the Trading Platform, Product Information Sheets or contact Customer Services for further information.
- 14.5 AYONDO MARKETS may limit the minimum and/or maximum stake/trade sizes (on closing) if Underlying Conditions change. This limit can apply regardless of the minimum/maximum size that was in place at the time of opening the Margined Trade. If, on closing, the maximum stake/trade size is less than the minimum and/or maximum stake/trade size on opening, it will not be possible for You to completely close all of Your Open Positions with one Margined Trade.
- 14.6 If You, or AYONDO MARKETS in accordance with these Terms, do not specifically close an Open Position and, subject to any Order You may place, an Open Position will run until it's expiry date and time.

- 14.7 On the expiry date and time the Open Position is automatically closed in accordance with the settlement details in the Product Information Sheets. If none are set out then it will be on the basis quoted by AYONDO MARKETS on closure. You should also note that Our Prices shown on the Trading Platform may not be the settlement price.
- 14.8 You can refer to the Product Information Sheets and the Trading Platform for expiry date and times. Any details that are not available can be obtained from Customer Services.
- 14.9 'First In, First Out' (also referred to as FIFO) will not apply if you have more than one Open Position in the same Market for the same expiry date. Open Positions may only be closed in their entirety and via the specific closing of each individual Open Position.

15 ORDERS

- 15.1 General: On certain Markets where you have Open Positions or wish to create an Open Position, We will accept instructions to place a Margined Trade ("Orders") when Our Price reaches a price set by You and agreed by Us ("the Proposed Execution Price"). This clause 15 deals with those Orders.
- 15.2 We may also agree with You that before You enter into a Margined Trade with Us We will purchase the Underlying and, having done so, We will then enter into a Margined Trade with You at a price we construct having purchased the Underlying. This is known as 'working orders in the external market'; these orders do not fall within this clause. Please also see our Trade and Order Execution Policy for further explanation.
- 15.3 For further information on which Markets we accept Orders in, You should call Customer Services or refer to the Trading Platform, the Product Information Sheets or the Website.
- 15.4 Types of Orders: "Limit Order": A Limit Order is an instruction to place a Margined Trade at Our Price (and agreed by Us) that is more advantageous to You than Our Price at the time the Order is placed; for example, an instruction to sell at our Price that is higher than is currently available or to buy at Our Price that is lower than is currently available.
- 15.5 "Stop Order": A Stop Order is an instruction to place a Margined Trade at Our Price (And agreed by Us) that is less advantageous to You than Our Price at the time the Order is place; for example, an instruction to sell at Our Price that is lower than is currently available or to buy at Our Price that is higher than is currently available.
- 15.6 It is important for You to note that the only Orders that are guaranteed to be executed at the proposed execution price are Guaranteed Stop Loss Orders and Limit Orders (including Take Profit Limit Orders) In the case of all other Orders, We give no guarantee that they will be executed at the Proposed Execution Price. See also clause 15.
- 15.7 Other types of Orders are variations of Limit Orders and Stop Orders which are as follows:
 - 15.7.1 "Take Profit Orders": We may allow a Take Profit Limit Order to be attached to a specific Open Position so that the Take Profit Limit Order will be automatically cancelled if the attendant Open Position is closed or expires.
 - 15.7.2 "Non-Guaranteed Stop Loss Order": A type of Stop Loss Order that is attached to a specific Open Position with the intention of limiting the liability of that Open Position, i.e. a Client with a Long Position might leave a Stop Loss Order to sell (in order to close his/her Long Position). if Our Price fell to a particular level. Equally, if You, the Client with a Short Position might leave a Stop Loss Order to buy (in order to close Your Short Position,) if Our Price rose to a particularly level. If a Stop Loss Order is not specifically designated as a Guaranteed Stop loss Order, the Stop Loss Order will be designated as a Non-Guaranteed Stop Loss Order.
 - 15.7.3 If You close the Open Position before the level of the attached Stop Loss Order is reached, the attached Stop Loss Order will be cancelled. You should note, particularly when trading on the Trading Platform, the difference between an opening Stop Order and a Stop Loss Order. An opening Stop Order that has not been cancelled will remain active for its life time until executed regardless of Your Open Positions. A Stop Loss Order is attached to a specific Open Position and will be automatically cancelled if the Open Position to which it is attached is closed or expires.
 - 15.7.4 "One Cancels The Other" ("OCO"): This is a combination of two opening Orders (either a Limit Order and a Stop Order, two Limit Orders or two Stop Orders), combined such that whichever Order is executed first the remaining Order is cancelled.
 - 15.7.5 "Guaranteed Stop Loss Order": This is a type of Stop Loss Order that is executed at the precise level the Order is placed. This type of Order is not available for every market and its availability is dependent on the size of the bet/trade in question, the distance of the Order from the current available Market price and the time at which the Order is either initially placed or subsequently moved. Orders are not guaranteed above the GSMS (Guaranteed Stop Maximum Size/Stake) or when placed closer to the current Market than the Guaranteed Stop Minimum Distance. The moving/placing of these Orders when the underlying Market is closed may also result in the Stop Loss Order losing eligibility for guarantee. These figures are dependent on the product in question. Please refer further to the Website, Trading Platform and the Product Information Sheets for further information. Please note that Guaranteed Stop Loss Orders are not offered in regards to the ayondo social trading service.

- 15.8 If We introduce new types of Order We will notify You in writing and will publish details on our Website and Product Information Sheets.
- 15.9 In respect of Orders, it is important that You understand the following terminology:
“Good For The Day” or “GFD” means that the Order is only effective on the day on which it is placed. It ceases to have effect on the earlier of: cancellation of the Order by You; automatic cancellation at 23:59:59 hrs in Your local time on the day the GFD Order is placed at local time; possible cancellation by Us as a result of the auto liquidation process occurring on Your Account (as a result of Your Account Liquidity falling below 0%) or triggering and subsequent execution of the Order.
“Good Till Cancelled” or “GTC” means that the Order will remain in effect on each AYONDO MARKETS trading day in respect of the relevant Market until the earliest of the following events: cancellation of the Order by You; possible cancellation by Us as a result of the auto liquidation process occurring on Your Account (as a result of Your Account Liquidity dropping below 0%); triggering and subsequent execution of the Order.
- 15.10 Provisions Applicable to All Orders: The following applies to all Orders:-
- 15.10.1 Orders must be given by telephone or via the Trading Platform. Orders cannot be placed by Email.
 - 15.10.2 We can, acting reasonably, refuse any request by You to place an Order.
 - 15.10.3 The Orders that attach to specific Open Positions are: Take Profit Limit Orders, Non-Guaranteed Stop Loss Orders, Guaranteed Stop Loss Orders and One Cancels The Other Orders. The only Order that attaches to another Order is One Cancels The Other. Subject to that, unless We agree otherwise, Orders will not be attached to specific Open Positions or other Orders. In addition, unless We agree otherwise (for example, in relation to Orders that attach to Open Positions), all Orders are instructions to open or close a Margined Trade regardless of whether the Margined Trade has the effect of opening a new Margined Trade or closing an existing one.
 - 15.10.4 All Terms that apply to opening or closing a Margined Trade (as applicable) must be complied with both on placing an Order (as if You were then placing a Margined Trade) and on its execution; In particular, if Our Price is indication only, indicative or unavailable, execution of the relevant Order will be referred to the Trading Desk who will decide whether execution is appropriate although no Order will be executed if Our Price is unavailable. We can refuse to accept or execute an Order if the applicable Terms are not complied with.
 - 15.10.5 All Orders are worked and triggered to reference Our Price.
 - 15.10.6 All Orders are deemed GTC unless We agree when You place an Order that it is GFD.
 - 15.10.7 The price at which Orders will be executed is not guaranteed unless the Order is eligible for a guarantee (in the case of Guaranteed Stop Loss Orders, Limit Orders and Take Profit Limit Orders).
 - 15.10.8 We may agree with You that an Order may only be executed during our trading hours for the Market when those hours coincide with the trading hours of the Underlying.
 - 15.10.9 You are responsible for cancelling any Order that you have placed; unless You do so, the Order will be executed, regardless of whether You have closed or opened any Margined Trades, unless the Order has been automatically cancelled in accordance with these Terms.
 - 15.10.10 Orders which would exceed our maximum stake/trade size applicable on execution will be executed in tranches up to the maximum of our maximum stake/trade size until executed in full. The Our Price at which each tranche is executed may vary considerably.
- 15.11 Execution Of Orders: Orders will be executed if Our Price reaches the proposed execution price or trades through it so if you have placed an Order to create a Long Position that Order will be executed if Our Offer Price reaches the proposed execution price or trades through it. If you have placed an Order to create a Short Position, that Order will be executed if Our Bid Price reaches the proposed execution price or trades through it.
- 15.12 Your Order may not be executed at the proposed execution price and may be executed at a worse Our Price (possibly much worse) than the proposed execution price. This is particularly the case if Gapping occurs. Subject to clause 15.13, and provided that We have endeavoured to carry out Your Orders as soon as reasonably practicable, depending on the Market hour and Market conditions, We have no liability to You if the Our Price at which Your Order is executed is different to the proposed execution price.

- 15.13 In respect of the execution of the Orders:
- 15.13.1 Orders will be executed by AYONDO MARKETS when it is reasonably able to do so;
 - 15.13.2 Orders are executed at the first price reasonably available to AYONDO MARKETS based on Our Price. For example, in the case of Gapping, Orders will be executed at Our Price based on the first price AYONDO MARKETS is reasonably able to obtain in the Underlying;
 - 15.13.3 In the case of Orders based on Underlying equity securities these will only be executed during AYONDO MARKETS trading hours for the relevant Market when those hours coincide with the trading hours of the Underlying even if AYONDO MARKETS quotes outside Underlying hours;
 - 15.13.4 No Orders will be monitored or executed outside AYONDO MARKETS trading hours for the relevant Market. Our Price at which the Order may be executed may be substantially different to the proposed execution price;
 - 15.13.5 If a Market has traded through the proposed execution price of an Order outside AYONDO MARKETS trading hours but by the opening of AYONDO MARKETS trading hours that Market has been restored so that the proposed execution price is not exceeded, AYONDO MARKETS will not execute that Order at the opening of AYONDO MARKETS trading hours and the Order will not continue to be valid;
 - 15.13.6 In respect of Markets quoted by AYONDO MARKETS outside the trading hours of the relevant Underlying (for example FTSE 100 trading in Asian/out of hours) Orders may be filled at Our Price which is in AYONDO MARKETS' opinion, reasonable in light of prevailing world Underlying Markets at that time unless AYONDO MARKETS has accepted alternative instructions from You.
 - 15.13.7 If you have multiple Orders including some attached to specific Margined Trades and some which are not, there may be different outcomes if more than one Order is triggered at the same time;
 - 15.13.8 Our Trade and Order Execution Policy provides information regarding the execution of Orders;
 - 15.13.9 We are not obliged to inform You that an Order has been executed nor Our Price at which it has been executed except by a contract note and online statements in accordance with clause 17.
- 15.14 AYONDO MARKETS may offer Guaranteed Stop Loss Orders on some markets/products. The extent to which this facility is available varies from product to product and can be clearly found by consulting the Trading Platform and/or our Product Information Sheets. Guaranteed Stop Loss Orders are available when the trade/bet size is less than or equal to the Guaranteed Stop Maximum Stake/Size (GSMS) and when the Stop Loss Order is placed equal to or further away from the Current Market Price than the Guaranteed Stop Minimum Distance (GSMD). Any individual Orders which fulfil these qualifying criteria will be executed on a guaranteed basis (at the exact price level of the Stop Loss Orders). Please note, Stop Loss Orders are not eligible for guarantee when placed or moved (closer to the current Market) when the underlying Market is closed. We do not offer Guaranteed Stop Loss Orders on all products and the GSMS and GSMD values between different products can vary considerably. For further information, please refer to our Product Information Sheets, the Website and Trading Platform and Customer Services. AYONDO MARKETS can change the value of the GSMS and GSMD at its sole discretion without notifying You. Please note that Guaranteed Stop Loss Orders are not offered in regards to the ayondo social trading service.

 - 18.14.1 Combine and consolidate Your Cash Balance with any or all other Accounts You may have with AYONDO MARKETS (whether spread betting or CFD trading or otherwise, even if any of those Accounts have been closed);
 - 18.14.2 set-off against each other the amounts, namely:

 - 18.14.2.3 You are also entitled to require Us to exercise the above rights in relation to all your Accounts on which we have closed all your Open Positions and cancelled all Orders.

- Any money You owe Us or We owe You;
- Any money You pay to Us;

18.17 Abusive Trading: Internet, connectivity delays and price feed errors sometimes create a situation where the process displayed on the Trading Platform do not actually reflect the market rates. The concept of arbitrage and “scalping”, or taking advantage of these internet delays is not permitted by AYONDO MARKETS. Transactions that rely on price latency or arbitrage opportunities may be revoked. AYONDO MARKETS reserves the right to make necessary corrections or adjustments on any Account involved. Accounts that rely on arbitrage strategies may at AYONDO MARKETS’ sole discretion be subject to manual intervention/approval of orders. Any dispute arising from such quoting or execution errors will be resolved by AYONDO MARKETS in AYONDO MARKETS’ sole and absolute discretion. In the event that we determine, at our own discretion, that an abusive trading technique has been used We reserve the right to take action as We see fit including blocking access to the service, terminating Your Account and freezing or reclaiming all funds held in Your Account.

29 MARKET ABUSE

29.1 AYONDO MARKETS will from time to time hedge its liability to You by opening analogous positions with other institutions. One of the consequences of this is that if You execute Margined Trades and/or place Orders on Markets relating to Underlying shares, your Margined Trades and/or Orders can (through our hedging) exert a distorting influence on trading in the Underlying; this is in addition to any impact on our Prices. Spread betting and CFD trading is generally subject to the same market abuse rules and legislation which govern dealing in the Underlying. The purpose of this clause is to remind You that trading behaviour which amounts to market abuse (including insider dealing or market manipulation) is illegal in the UK and in most other jurisdictions related to spread betting and CFD trading, and that we may take appropriate action in accordance with the Law, Regulations and these Terms.

29.2 You represent and warrant to Us:

29.2.1 You will not knowingly place and have not placed a Margined Trade and/or Order that contravenes any legislation or other Law or Regulations in relation to insider dealing. For the purposes of this clause You agree that We may proceed on the basis that when You place a Margined Trade and/or Order relating to an exchange traded instrument You may be treated as if you were dealing in securities within the meaning of Part V of the Criminal Justice Act 1993;

29.2.2 You will not place and have not placed any Margined Trade and/or Order with Us, or otherwise when you deal with Us, and carried out a course of conduct in doing so, that would amount to market abuse and/or market manipulation by You (or by You acting jointly or in collusion with another person). For the purpose of assessing whether you have done so, you may (where relevant) be deemed to have dealt directly in the Underlying to which you're Margined Trade and/or Order relates. Market abuse is defined under Section 118 of the FSMA 2000 (as amended by S.I.2001/2699) and the Market Abuse Directive 2008/26/EC. Further information can be obtained from the FCA website at www.fca.org.uk.

30.3 We warrant that We have the right to permit You to use the Intellectual Property Materials in accordance with the Terms.

30.4 We will use reasonable endeavours that the Intellectual Property Materials are free from any virus, but We do not warrant that this will be the case. In which case, You must use Your own virus protection software.

30.5 You are responsible for ensuring that Your information technology is compatible with ours.

- 30.6 We are required by the providers of real time price data to obtain certain warranties from you. You warrant in relation to that data (to the extent that we make it available to You) that:

We can also amend or replace the Trade and Order Execution Policy in whole or in part by giving written notice to You of the changes. We will only make changes for good reason including as a result of market conditions, changes in the way we operate our business, changes in the service to be provided to You, changes in the cost of providing a service to You and changes in legal or other requirements affecting Us. Circumstances in which We may make changes also include:

Technical Characteristics

41 ROLLING OVER A POSITION – FIXED EXPIRY SPREAD BETS AND CFDs

41.1 Before the expiry date of a spread bet or CFD product, You may ask Us to roll over that spread bet or CFD. You must make this request at a certain time before expiry – please contact Customer Services for the times by which You must make this request. These times may vary depending on the Market concerned. We are not obliged to agree to roll over the spread bet or CFD.

41.2 If You are permitted to roll over a spread bet or CFD:

41.2.1 The original spread bet or CFD is closed at Our Price and becomes due for settlement;

41.2.2 A new spread bet or CFD is immediately opened (in the relevant Market) at Our Price offered for the new spread bet or CFD;

41.2.3 It is Your responsibility to re-attach any attached limit or stop orders once any roll has been carried out.

42 DAILY ROLLING SPREAD BETS

42.1 On some Markets we may offer rolling spread bets. Please refer to the Product Information Sheets, the Trading Platform and the Website for details of the Markets on which we offer rolling spread bets.

42.2 A daily financing charge applies to rolling spread bets. Please note:

42.2.1 The financing charge will either be paid by You to Us or by Us to You, depending on the type of rolling spread bet concerned and whether you hold a Long Position or a Short Position.

42.2.2 The method of calculation of the financing charge varies depending on the type of rolling spread bet concerned.

42.2.3 The amount of financing charge will vary as it is calculated by reference to current interest rates (such as LIBOR).

42.3 You should refer to the Product Information Sheets or Customer Services to ascertain whether You pay or receive the financing charge and the method of calculation.

42.4 The financing charge will be credited or debited (as appropriate) to Your Account once per day at a specified time, details of which may be obtained from Customer Services.

42.5 We reserve the right to vary the method of calculating the financing charge, financing rates and/or the types of rolling spread bets to which it relates by giving You not less than 14 days written notice.

- 42.6 It is Your responsibility to access the Trading Platform or contact Customer Services so that you know whether You pay or receive the financing charge and how it is calculated.
- 42.7 A dividend adjustment may apply to rolling spread bets. A dividend adjustment is credited to rolling Long Positions and debited from rolling Short Positions if the dividend relates directly or indirectly to Your rolling spread bets and your rolling spread bet is open at the close of AYONDO MARKETS business on the last AYONDO MARKETS trading day before the ex-dividend date. Payment is credited or debited to Your Account over the ex-dividend date. See also the Product Information Sheets, the Website or contact Customer Services for further details. We may, acting reasonably, terminate or vary the dividend adjustment depending on changes in the Law, the Regulations and/or rates of tax.

43 CFDs AND FINANCING – NON-FIXED EXPIRY CFDs

- 43.1A daily financing charge may apply to each non-fixed expiry CFD Open Position at the close of AYONDO MARKETS' trading day in respect of that CFD.
- 43.2 If a financing charge is applicable it is either paid by You to Us or Us to You depending on the type of CFD concerned and whether You hold a Long Position or a Short Position.
- 43.3 The method of calculation of the financing charge varies depending on the type of CFD concerned.
- 43.4 The amount of financing charge will vary as it is calculated to current interest rates (such as LIBOR).
- 43.5 You need to refer to the Product Information Sheets, Website or Customer Services to ascertain whether you pay or receive the financing charge and the method of calculation.
- 43.6 The financing charge will be credited or debited (as appropriate) to Your Account once per day at a specified time, details of which may be obtained from Customer Services.
- 43.7 We reserve the right to vary the method of calculating the financing charge, financing rates and/or the types of CFD to which the financing charge applies by giving you not less than 14 days written notice.
- 43.8 It is Your responsibility to access the Trading Platform or contact Customer Services so that you know whether You pay or receive the financing charge, how it is calculated and the types of CFD to which it applies.

44 PROFITS AND LOSSES

- 44.1 On closure of a spread bet or CFD trade, a profit or a loss will have arisen as follows:
 - 44.1.1 You will have made a profit if Our Price at which You sold (whether opening or closing the spread bet or CFD trade) exceeded Our Price at which You bought, (whether opening or closing the spread bet or CFD trade). Please note, the overall profitability on the position will also depend on other factors such as financing charges and dividend adjustments incurred throughout the lifetime of the open position;
 - 44.1.2 You will have made a loss if Our Price at which You sold, (whether opening or closing the spread bet or CFD), was less than Our Price at which you bought, (whether opening or closing the spread bet or CFD trade). Please note, the overall profitability on the position will also depend on other factors such as financing charges and dividend adjustments incurred throughout the lifetime of the open position;
- 44.2 Profits on closed spread bets or CFD trades will be credited to Your Cash Balance.
- 44.3 Losses on closed spread bets or CFD trades will be debited from Your Cash Balance.
- 44.4 Unrealised Marked to Market profits (i.e. profits on Open Positions) will not be credited to Your Account. Likewise unrealised Marked to Market losses (i.e. losses on Open Positions) will not be debited to Your Account. Those unrealised profits and losses will be calculated as above replacing the closing Our Price with the Marked to market Our Price; We call the total of Your unrealised Profits and Losses (Marked to Market) "Open Position P & L". Please also note that Open Position P&L is taken into account in the calculation of Trading Resource. This means that Open Position P&L is taken into account to calculate Margin, to determine whether or not You can place a spread bet and determined maximum stake size of a spread bet.

45 SINGLE EQUITY PRODUCTS

- 45.1 This refers to margined Trades that are related to Underlying equities, equity forwards and related products.
- 45.2 In some equity Markets it may not be possible to place an opening Short Position in particular if the Underlying has a small capitalisation or is not liquid. We may charge a supplementary premium, set by Us, to open such a Short Position.

- 45.3 If You have a Short Position spread bet/trade or CFD trade relating directly or indirectly to an Underlying equity, AYONDO MARKETS may hedge this by taking a short position on the equity with another financial institution. In this case, there may be instances where the amount of stock available to borrow may be limited or otherwise in short supply and, as a result, additional charges may be incurred by Us. In these instances, AYONDO MARKETS may pass this borrowing charge on to You in the form of a daily special borrowing charge. This charge is at the discretion of our hedging partners and is subject to fluctuation. We will notify You if We render any such charge and what that charge may be.
- 45.4 This clause applies to all equity forwards, spread bets and CFDs and only applies if:
- 45.4.1 a dividend is expected to be declared and/or paid in relation to any Underlying equity (to which Your Margined Trade relates) before expiry of that Margin Trade; and
 - 45.4.2 a dividend is declared or paid in respect of the Underlying equity (to which Your Margined Trade (relating to the Underlying equity) was based on our reasonable anticipation that a dividend would be declared or paid (within a reasonable time in accordance with previous years); or
 - 45.4.3 Our Price at which You opened your Margined Trade (relating to the Underlying equity) was based on our reasonable anticipation that a dividend would be declared or paid (within a reasonable time in accordance with previous years) and no such dividend has been declared or paid and/or no dividend is likely to be declared or paid;
 - 45.4.4 If this clause applies, AYONDO MARKETS may, acting reasonably, make an appropriate adjustment (which may be retrospective) to the opening Our Price of a Margined Trading relating to that Underlying in order to reflect that dividend or no dividend (as the case may be) in the opening price of the Margined Trade.
- 45.5 This clause applies to CFD trades and spread bets. If a dividend payment is made to any Underlying equity to which Your Open Position CFD trade and/or rolling spread bet/trade relates and that Open Position is open at the close of AYONDO MARKETS business on the last AYONDO MARKETS trading day in relation to the relevant Market before the relevant ex-dividend date, then AYONDO MARKETS will make an ex-dividend adjustment to those related index, sector or equity Open Position CFD trades and/or rolling spread bets held by You and the following apply:
- 45.5.1 The adjustment will reflect the market practice as determined by AYONDO MARKETS acting reasonably, of the withholding tax requirements of the relevant tax authority;
 - 45.5.2 We may make the adjustments with or without notice to You. If you We do so without giving notice, this will be shown on your statements which are available online; rates of adjustment will be supplied on request;
 - 45.5.3 The adjustment will be credited to Your Account in the case of a Long Position;
 - 45.5.4 The adjustment will be debited to Your Account in the case of a Short Position.
- 45.6 We may, acting reasonably, terminate or vary the dividend adjustment depending on changes in the law, the Regulations and/or rates of tax.
- 45.7 If we are obliged to close any hedging position We have taken in relation to Your Margined Trades, (for example, the Underlying equity shares are unavailable and/or a buy in notice is enforced by the relevant exchange) We can, with or without notice to You, close your related Open Positions at Our Price based on the closure price of the Underlying. If we exercise this right without giving You notice, we will give you such notice that We have done so as soon as reasonably practicable.
- 45.8 We can pass on to You an additional charge to take into account of stamp duty or other taxes incurred by Us on certain non-UK equities to which your Margined Trades directly or indirectly relate. Please see the Product Information Sheets or contact Customer Services for details of the Margined Trades that may be subject to these charges.
- 45.9 If a Corporate Action occurs, We can exercise the rights in this clause in relation to any Open Position spread bets or CFD trades. Any changes made by Us clause may be effective immediately. Our rights are to:
- 45.9.1 Change Our Prices
 - 45.9.2 Change minimum and maximum stake/trade sizes;
 - 45.9.3 Change Margin parameters;
 - 45.9.4 Change the opening Our Price and/or opening stake/trade sizes of an Open Position;
 - 45.9.5 Change the agreed execution price of any Orders;
 - 45.9.6 close any Open Positions at Our Price;
 - 45.9.7 open new Margined Trades in any relevant new Market.
- 45.10 We can only exercise the rights in 45.9 if the Corporate Action has occurred in relation to an Underlying equity to which Your Open Position directly or indirectly relates; we can, for example, exercise those rights if Your

Open Position is in respect of any related product such as a sector future, sector CFD or spread bet/trade. When exercising those rights:

- 45.10.1 We will act reasonably in order to endeavour to preserve the economic value of the relevant Open Position or Order;
 - 45.10.2 Those rights will relate to Open Positions held at the close of business of the AYONDO MARKETS trading day (for the relevant Underlying) preceding the ex-date relating to the Corporate Action;
 - 45.10.3 Depending on the nature of the Corporate Action, We may exercise those rights with or without notice. If We exercise without notice, We will give You notice as soon as reasonably practicable that We have done so;
 - 45.10.4 We will make adjustments to Your Account as soon as We reasonably can, usually on or around the date We exercised the rights concerned.
- 45.11 If an Insolvency Event occurs in relation to an entity to which Your Open Position directly or indirectly relates, We can take any of the steps referred to in clause 45.9 in relation to the Markets affected by that Insolvency Event and will notify You of any of Your Open Positions which are closed or amended.
- 45.12 If Your cumulative Open Positions in any single equity forward are equal to or more than:
- 45.12.1 UK equities – an Underlying position of 4 multiplied by NMS (Normal Market Size as defined by The London Stock Exchange);
 - 45.12.2 US and European equities: £100,000 cumulative stake/trade size multiplied by Our Price), or cumulative open positions of £200 per point, whichever is smaller;
 - 45.12.3 And those Open Positions have not been closed or reduced below that size by at least one hour before the Underlying market close, on the last AYONDO MARKETS trading day of the AYONDO MARKETS contract in question, AYONDO MARKETS may, subject to clause 45.13, automatically roll the Open Positions into the next contract period.
- 45.13 We can refuse to roll the Open Positions as referred to above if for any reason We are entitled under the Terms to refuse to open a new Margined Trade for You. If We refuse to roll the Open Positions, they will be automatically closed at Our Price on the basis of settlement set out in the Product Information Sheets or, if there is none set out, on the basis quoted by AYONDO MARKETS on closure.

Terms Applicable to Margining

46 MARGIN

46.1 Margin is due to AYONDO MARKETS on each opening Margined Trade You offer to place and Margin Requirement must be maintained on all Open Positions. This clause 46 explains how Margin is calculated. Please note:

- 46.1.1 You may not be able to place a Margined Trade unless You have Paid to AYONDO MARKETS the Margin due on that Margined Trade;
 - 46.1.2 You must also maintain the relevant amount of Margin Requirement on all Open Positions and Orders. Since the factors that are used to calculate Margin may change (eg Our Prices and Margin Parameters), You may have to pay additional Margin to maintain Your Open Positions and/or Orders to be executed;
 - 46.1.3 If You do not maintain the relevant amount of Margin Requirement on Your Open Positions, We have the right under these Terms to close Your Open Positions and Your Account.
- 46.2 Subject to clause 47.1.1 Margin is calculated by using the Margin Parameters. These values vary depending on the Market concerned and are determined by Us and are available on the Trading Platform or by contacting Customer Services.
- 46.3 Depending on the size of any proposed Margined Trade, (eg if particularly large), We can, before or after You place that Margined Trade, specify such Margin as We think appropriate to manage the risk of the Margined Trade.
- 46.4 We may vary Margin Parameters. Any change will come into effect upon being published on the Website.
- 46.5 It is Your responsibility to make sure You know the current Margin Parameters and the associated Margin Requirement. Please contact Customer Services if you are in doubt.

47 MARGIN CALCULATION

47.1 Once You know the applicable Margin Parameters, Margin is calculated as follows:

The Margin is the amount of funds (in base account currency) required to open or maintain a trade or place an order. This can be calculated as follows:

Effective Margin Rate x Trade Value

Please note: You may vary (increase) Your Margin Rate using the variable margin slider or by setting an account default margin rate. The Effective Margin Rate is the higher value of the Base Margin Rate, the account default Margin Rate or the slider adjusted margin rate.

48 MARGIN PAYMENT (TO MAINTAIN OPEN POSITIONS)

- 48.1 If Your Margin Available is a negative figure, meaning that You do not have sufficient funds on Your Account to cover Your total Margin Requirement, You have to pay Us the amount (“Margin”) needed to increase that negative figure to zero in order to maintain Your open positions. For example, if Your Margin Available is negative £1000, You will have to pay Margin of at least £1000 into Your Account in order to maintain Your open positions. Alternatively, if You have a positive balance on any other Account that we hold for You (“Other Account”) that is not being used as Margin, then We may transfer any such balance to reduce the Margin deficit on the Account where the Margin Available is a negative figure, provided that such transfer would not result in a negative balance or Margin deficit on Your Other Account.
- 48.2 It is Your Responsibility to ensure that you understand how Margin is calculated and to check your Open Positions, and all other relevant factors used to calculate Margin.
- 48.2.1 We are not under any obligation to keep you informed of your account balance and Margin required (i.e. to make a Margin Call).
- 48.2.2 It is your responsibility to notify us immediately of any change in your contact details and to provide us with alternative contact details and ensure that our calls for Margin will be met if you cannot be contacted at the contact address, email address or telephone number notified to us (for example because you are travelling or are on holiday, or you are prevented from being in contact because of a religious holiday). We will not be liable for any losses, costs or expenses or damages incurred or suffered by you as a consequence of your failure to do so.
- 48.3 Your Margin Available will be available via the Trading Platform and hence You will be available to see the amount of Margin payable. It is Your responsibility to make sure You have the financial means to pay Margin when it is due for payment to Us You must pay Margin as soon as We make a Margin Call on You (see below). You should not open a Margined Trade if You are unsure whether You will be able to pay Margin. You should in particular consider the stake/trade size You wish to use. In addition, if You think that You might be out of contact with Us for a period of time, You should consider closing any Open Positions.
- 48.4 As soon as your Margin Available becomes negative You owe Us the Margin. You must pay Us the Margin as soon as We make a Margin Call or as soon as your Margin available figure becomes negative. A Margin Call is a request made by Us to You for You to pay Margin. We are regarded as having made a Margin Call if We have:
- 48.4.1 requested payment of Margin by any means of communication in accordance with these Terms but including voicemail and SMS text. You should ensure You are always contactable and You should inform Us of any preferred method to contact You.
- 48.4.2 Used all reasonable efforts to contact You but have been unable to do so and have been unable to leave a message for You.
- 48.5 Subject to the rules of the FCA, we may allow You to run Open Positions or to place new Margined Trades and/or Orders even if You have not met any Margin payment which is due.
- 48.6 Margin payments must be settled in Pounds Sterling, US Dollars, Euros, Swiss Francs or Swedish Krona or any other currency as communicated by AYONDO MARKETS.
- 48.7 We will exercise the rights in clause 48.8 in the event of any Margin Call:
- 48.8 We will on or after a Margin Call require payment of the full amount of Margin by electronic transfer, debit card or any other method of immediate/electronic funds transfer acceptable to Us. You must pay to us as follows:

- 48.8.1 Margin Call made on or before 12.00 noon on a Business Day (or a non Business Day) or at any time prior to 16.00 hrs on a Friday: payment must be received 16.00 hrs on that Business Day;
- 48.8.2 Margin Call made after 12.00 noon on a Business Day (or a non Business Day) or after 16.00 hrs on a Friday : payment must be received by 12.00 noon on the next Business Day.
- 48.9 If We have exercised our rights to close all Your Open Positions and to cancel all Orders We can also suspend Your Account in accordance with these Terms.
- 48.10 We can exercise the above rights with or without notice to You but we shall give You notice as soon as reasonably practicable that We have exercised these rights.
- 48.11 We can exercise our rights under clauses 48.8 to 48.9 inclusive at any time after the relevant event has occurred and regardless of when the Underlying may close.

49 AUTO LIQUIDATION

- 49.1 AYONDO MARKETS enforces an Auto-Liquidation Policy. In the event that Your account value (account cash balance plus open profit/loss in account base currency) drops to a figure that is less than Your Account Value Trigger, Your account will enter a liquidation state and your Account Liquidity will fall below 0%. When in this state:
 - 49.1.1 Closure of Open Positions will commence. The Open Position with the largest loss will be closed first (at the best price available). If your Account Liquidity remains below 0%, the Open Position with the next largest loss will be closed. The process will continue until your Account Liquidity is restored above 0%. It may also be necessary for AYONDO MARKETS to cancel opening orders. Due to various conditions including volatility, Underlying liquidity and the size of the trade(s) to be liquidated, Your positions may be closed at significantly worse levels than the current price that is available in the Underlying market. AYONDO MARKETS will liquidate positions in a timely fashion but if the liquidation scenario occurs whilst some Underlying markets in which You have a position are closed, AYONDO MARKETS may defer execution of these liquidation trades until the opening of the Underlying market;
 - 49.1.2 You will not be able to enter any new Margined Trades and Your account will remain in such a state until your Account Liquidity has been restored above 0%. You will only then be able to place further Margined Trades if Your account cash balance is greater than zero and You have sufficient margin available with which to place Margined Trades;
 - 49.1.3 You will not be able to close any existing Open Positions or modify any open orders;
- 49.2 Liquidity Figure - AYONDO MARKETS will display a Liquidity Figure which acts as an indicator of the health status of an account. This Liquidity Figure can be viewed by accessing the Trading Platform. When this Liquidity Figure falls below 0%, this signifies that Your account value (account cash balance plus open profit/loss in account base currency) has dropped to a figure that is less than Your Account Value Trigger and Your account will enter a liquidation state and is subject to the process detailed in clause 49.1. Please note, Your account will not exit this liquidation state if after having reached 0%, the value then increases above 0%. Once a liquidation state is reached, Your Account will remain in liquidation state until at least one Open Position has been closed.
- 49.3 It is Your Responsibility to ensure that You understand how Account liquidity works and the impact that this could have on Your positions and your Account.
- 49.4 We will notify You when Your account enters a liquidation state and We are regarded as having done so if We have notified You by any means of communication in accordance with these Terms.
- 49.5 We may allow You to run Open Positions or to place new Margined Trades and/or Orders even if Your Account is in a liquidation state. This is done entirely at AYONDO MARKETS' discretion.

50 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

We, or our associates, may have an interest or relationship which conflicts with your interest or our duties to you. As a result, we have developed a conflicts of interest policy (which may be reviewed and updated from time to time) pursuant to the FCA rules, which set out how we will manage material conflicts of interest.

Our conflicts of interest policy can be found on our website or alternatively can be requested from Customer Services.

51 PAYMENT FOR AUTO EXECUTION SERVICE

- 51.1 You have separately entered into a contract with our group company Ayondo Portfolio Management GmbH (“APM”) in respect of APM’s Auto Execution Service (the “Auto Execution Contract”). The Auto Execution Contract provides that payment by You to Us in full in respect of the fees due in respect of APM’s auto execution service extinguishes your liability to pay the corresponding amount to APM. APM’s fees for this service and how they are calculated have been agreed with you in Your contract with APM and shall be payable by you on a daily basis.
- 51.2 You agree that We can without further notice debit your Account with Us in respect of the amount owed by You to APM in relation to the services provided under the Auto Execution Contract. Normally this will be a debit of Your Account with Us in relation to the services provided under the Auto Execution Contract during the preceding day and a statement of the amounts debited will be provided to you electronically. Depending on the level of funds held in Your Account this may lead to your Account being closed or suspended by Us in accordance with clauses 18 and 19 of these Terms.
- 51.3 In accordance with clause 18.12 of these Terms You will be liable in full to Us for all losses, costs and expenses We incur due to Your failure to pay any amounts which are due from You including monies owing to Us in respect of services performed by APM under the Auto Execution Contract. Such losses, costs and expenses include our legal costs and other third party costs reasonably incurred in recovering any sums from You.

52. INACTIVITY FEE

- 52.1 Your Account will be charged with an initial Inactivity Fee in the event that Your Account has been Inactive for a period of 180 calendar days.
- 52.2 In the event that Your Account remains Inactive for subsequent periods of 30 calendar days after the initial Inactivity Fee has been charged, Your Account will incur additional recurring Inactivity Fees upon the anniversary of each 30 day period.
- 52.3 All Inactivity Fees will be charged in the currency of Your Account and in units of 10 for all currencies with the exception of the following:

- 52.4 In the event that there is insufficient available cash on Your Account to absorb an Inactivity Fee, the balance of Your Account will be reduced to zero.
- 52.5 Inactivity Fees will not be charged in the case of Accounts where the current cash balance is less than or equal to zero.
- 52.6 Where a client has two Accounts (under the same username) and where one Account is Inactive but the other is active, no Inactivity Charge will apply to the Inactive Account.
- 52.7 Account transactions that are not related to trading activity (e.g. deposit and withdrawal transactions) do not constitute “activity” and will not render an account “active”.
